

DECLARATION OF EMERGENCY

WHEREAS, the Department of Health (DOH) has received information from the National Center for Immunization and Respiratory Diseases (NCIRD) that a case of measles was reported in the Philippines on 12/10/2019, and that the case was confirmed by the National Center for Disease Control and Prevention (NCDC) on 12/10/2019;

AND WHEREAS, the DOH has received information from the NCIRD that the case was a child aged 10 months old, who was born in the Philippines and who had not received any measles-containing vaccine;

AND WHEREAS, the DOH has received information from the NCIRD that the case was a child who was born in the Philippines and who had not received any measles-containing vaccine;

AND WHEREAS, the DOH has received information from the NCIRD that the case was a child who was born in the Philippines and who had not received any measles-containing vaccine;

AND WHEREAS, the DOH has received information from the NCIRD that the case was a child who was born in the Philippines and who had not received any measles-containing vaccine;

AND WHEREAS, the DOH has received information from the NCIRD that the case was a child who was born in the Philippines and who had not received any measles-containing vaccine;

AND WHEREAS, the DOH has received information from the NCIRD that the case was a child who was born in the Philippines and who had not received any measles-containing vaccine;

AND WHEREAS, the DOH has received information from the NCIRD that the case was a child who was born in the Philippines and who had not received any measles-containing vaccine;

AND WHEREAS, the DOH has received information from the NCIRD that the case was a child who was born in the Philippines and who had not received any measles-containing vaccine;

AND WHEREAS, the DOH has received information from the NCIRD that the case was a child who was born in the Philippines and who had not received any measles-containing vaccine;

